

Tap into new revenue streams – with esports Pre-Match Betting Markets from Betradar

Betradar has entered into an exclusive partnership with the Electronic Sports League (ESL), which enables us to provide you with pre-match betting markets for thousands of matches across different games including Counter-Strike: Global Offensive, Dota 2, League of Legends (LOL) and StarCraft II. Over time, we will increase our portfolio of games and markets offered continuously.

Esports Odds Suggestions from Betradar include not only common markets such as 2way, 3way and Totals but also game specific markets such as First Tower, Knife Round Winner or First Round Winner.

Thanks to accurate official data delivered in real-time by ESL, we will also offer specially designed live odds markets.
